Dear Ms. Lyon:

I am writing to support Professor Carlos Aparicio's request for an extension of his Fulbright fellowship.

Professor Aparicio and I have had several discussions relating to his research and the connections between law and economic, social and political development. The work that he is doing is extremely important and creative and he has applied himself assiduously to his research. He is at a point in his work where an additional two months would be extremely valuable and I hope very much that an extension can be granted. His work could have an important impact in Uruguay, both in the way law is thought about and in getting others to see the important linkages between law and development.

Professor Aparicio will need the same monthly funding that he had in the first part of his stay here.

Sincerely,

David Smith
Vice Dean
